

2 - Basics – What Makes A Good Group?

It's important to think about how to make your group as effective as possible and to find a balance between getting things done and not being overloaded with jobs! You could use one of your first meetings to have a think about each of these words and to discuss amongst yourselves what YOU think makes a good group!

